

I would like to see an agreement between Sorenson and other video relays but would hope that what ever agreement is achieved that they would keep the Sorenson technology of using phone numbers instead of IPs for identification. The freedom and convenience to use other relays would allow the deaf and hard of hearing population better and quicker access to operators.